)
Debtor.)

ORDER

This matter came before the Court on an Application for Entry of an Order Appointing a Legal Representative for Purposes of Section 524(g) of the Bankruptcy Code filed on April 8, 2002, by the debtor; and on the Response of Travelers Casualty and Surety Company to the Debtor's Motion for an Order Appointing a Legal Representative for Purposes of Section 524(g) of the Bankruptcy Code filed on April 16, 2002. After notice, a hearing was held on April 17, 2002. Appearing were: Richard Carmody and Richard Wyrton, the attorneys for the debtor; Clark Watson, David Woll, Kenneth Zimen and Eric Ray, the attorneys for Travelers Casualty & Surety Co.; Scott Williams; the futures representative; Robert Fishman, the attorney for Scott Williams; Nancy Davis, the attorney for the unofficial asbestos claimants committee; John Whittington and Lloyd Peebles, the attorneys for the equity security holders; Shawn Ramey, the attorney for Shook & Fletcher Supply Co.; and Clinton Pittman, the attorney for SouthTrust Bank.

Based on the arguments of counsel and the pleadings, Mr. Scott Williams is appointed legal representative for purposes of section 524(g).

Mr. Williams may apply for reasonable compensation, based on the number of hours reasonably expended multiplied by a reasonable hourly rate, and reimbursement for actual, necessary expenses. The Court will determine what remuneration is allowed only after notice and after a hearing on the application. Mr. Williams may draw on any retainer paid in accordance with this paragraph.

A copy of all applications for compensation and expenses (with all attachments) shall be delivered to the Office of the Bankruptcy Administrator when the original is filed with the Clerk of this court. A Chambers copy shall be delivered at the same time. Neither the original nor any copy may be bound. If either the Bankruptcy Administrator or the Court is not supplied with a copy of any filed application, the application will not be considered.

IT IS SO ORDERED this the 19th day of April, 2002.
